

WORKSHOP THEATRE

2011 – 2012 SEASON

EXCITING AND IMPORTANT NEWS

Workshop Theatre has moved from our familiar location Pumphouse Theatre.

They will now perform at the Easterbrook Theatre at Currie Barracks.

The cost to attend remains at $14.00, which will continue to include your bus ride to and from the theatre, and a brief reception following the play, where you get to mingle with the actors. We will continue to depart from the South East corner of the South Centre parking area; south of the Library and west of the CIBC.

The performances will now begin at 7:30pm, so we will load the bus starting at 6:30pm with a departure time of 6:45pm. Please remember to bring your envelope with payment enclosed and your name/names on the outside. No cheques please, we can only accept cash consisting of bills, toonies and loonies. Please no small change.

We will continue to have you sign-up for the performances on the FLC Senior's web site. Access the WORKSHOP page and CLICK on the GREEN SIGN UP NOW button. A message will be generated requesting a ticket. If there is a problem, email flcworkshop@yahoo.ca with the play name. If you do not have computer access, please call the coordinator.

Indicate how many seats you require complete with all the names and FLC Seniors Club Membership numbers, a maximum of 4 seats per request. You must sign-up at least 2 weeks before the performance.

Our Workshop performances for the season are:

Wednesday, September 28 – “Men Are Dogs” – directed by Shelby Reinitz
A therapist runs a support group that runs into problems.

Wednesday, November 16 – “Pack of Lies” – directed by Mike Hughes
A True Story Of Espionage In The UK.

Wednesday, February 29 - “In The Heat Of The Night” – directed by Mike Brown

Wednesday, May 16 – “Love On The Ropes” – directed by Alan LeBoeuf

Coordinator: Camella Dunbar 403-251-1690