Biography

With a lifelong passion for creativity and artistic expression, Patricia Gutierrez brings more than 20 years of artistic experience to her teaching. After completing five years of formal art and architectural education and graduating in 2004, Patricia spent a decade working as a professional artist, developing a distinctive style in acrylic painting with a special focus on natural landscapes and animals. Her warm, encouraging approach makes art accessible and enjoyable for learners of all skill levels, particularly adults and seniors looking to explore their creativity or refine their technique. As a current board member of the Calgary Community Painters Society, Patricia remains actively involved in the local arts community, sharing her knowledge, inspiration, and passion for painting with others.
