

Where in the world has our Old Spokes cycling jersey traveled?

Where in the world are Marilyn & Larry Patterson and Sandy MacDonald?
Greece!

Submitted by Marilyn Patterson with these comments:

The 3 of us took our Cycling Jerseys to Greece hoping to be able to cycle but we were evacuated before we had a chance.

This picture was taken in Athens and is a statue of King Konstantinos who was the first King of Greece.

Where in the world is Lynda Fielder? Slovakia!

This picture is in Bratislava, Slovakia, part of a 7-day cycle & boat trip from Passau, Germany to Budapest, Hungary, along the Danube River.

Beautiful countryside. I highly recommend it.

Where in the world are Diane Trimming with Marg Dunphy? Holland!

Submitted by Diane Trimming with these comments:

The shirts did travel from Bruges, Belgium, to Amsterdam. It was quite cold so they were often covered up but they did attract some attention when we were on the boat or indoors for breaks.

Marg and I had to remove several layers to have this shot taken in Holland.

Submit your photos & stories about the travel destinations where your Old Spokes cycling jersey has stood out in the crowd!

Does this remind you of 'Where's Waldo' - Old Spokes style??

Use the email link at the bottom of the main Cycling web page to request the FLC Cycling Web Content Coordinator's email address so you can submit your travel photos (and stories).